

Club "to act as a clearing house for the Hoover Clubs that had grown up in various parts of the United States," but said Mr. Hoover took no part in the step.

Taking up contributions, the witness said no individual had contributed more than $1,000, and that no corporation had contributed anything.

Expenditures for printing and publicity were placed by the witness at $20,000; for salaries, $14,000; on the Chicago Convention Committee, $2,000, and to Hoover clubs in Washington State, $2,000. While $14,000 had been borrowed to meet expenses, there was $9,852 cash on hand, but a deficit, not covered by contributions was noted at $4,147. Contributors were not named in the statement filed.

PROMISES TO FURNISH DETAILS OF CALIFORNIA CAMPAIGN.

Senator Reed, and Chairman Kenyon asked for details of what the former described as a "hot campaign" in California.

"Tell me what you want," Mr. Lucey replied. "I'll telegraph instantly Mr. Gregory there, and have him bring on the full report. I'll draft the telegram now."

The committee asked for local and general expenditures in that State.

Q. Who is it writes these laudatory articles about Mr. Hoover in the newspapers and periodicals? A. There is a Hoover Publicity League, with Mr. Edward Lyne Hunt in charge. I understand they were giving out information about Mr. Hoover. The only thing I saw was a pamphlet entitled, "How to form a Hoover club and how to take a straw vote."

Mr. Lucey's answer was interrupted while Senator Francis, Republican of Maryland, testified that in his campaign for the Presidential nomination he had spent no money and had neither an organization nor a manager.

Q. Have you any contributions from the international bankers in New York? A. We have had a due regard to the personal reputation of Mr. Hoover and ourselves and have consequently refused to accept any contributions for more than $1,000 and from corporations.

Reading from records, M. N. Thompson, for Mr. Lucey, said that $1,000 each had been contributed by J. P. Lucey, J. E. Reynolds, M. L. Requa, W. H. Boyteaux, W. R. Macey, Mrs. Julia Macey, J. M. Switzer, J. Everette Macey, R. J. Caldwell, G. A. Zabriskie, A. P. Barnes, J. H. Barnes, J. S. Plesch, M. J. McGarragh, J. McKee Bowman, Theodore F. Whitmarsh, Florence C. Pratt, Royal Victor, R. V. Latham, Manuel Rionda, P. N. Dray, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Pratt, Herbert S. Pratt, T. A. Gillespie, and Alex. J. Hemphill, all of New York; S. M. Evans, Baltimore; W. O. Thompson, Chicago; U. S. Cullinan, Houston, Tex.; B. H. Lang, St. Louis; George H. Warrington, Cincinnati; and V. M. Ginder, Duluth.

PROBING THE HOOVER FUND SPENT IN PENNSYLVANIA.

Charles J. Hepburn of Philadelphia, one of the Pennsylvania Hoover Club leaders, was called.

"We have never taken a dollar from New York," he said. "We collected about $4,402 in Philadelphia and in Pennsylvania as a whole about $20,000. It's our intention to file a full statement. There are several hundred thousand members of the club in the State. We have a balance of around $2,500 on hand now."

"Has Mr. Hoover contributed anything in New York or elsewhere?" A. "Not a dollar. He wouldn't even advise or consult until the last month or so. The money has nearly all been volunteered without solicitation."

Q. "Were you at a dinner or luncheon given in New York in January when the Hoover movement was started, where Cleveland H. Dodge and some others were present?" A. "I read about that. Cyrus Curtis was reported to have been present."

Q. "Do you know the business of these men who have contributed to your New York fund?" A. "Most of them worked with Mr. Hoover in Washington or in Belgium."

Q. "Some of them drew heavy salaries?" A. "Not so far as I know, most of them were volunteers."

Q. "About these Lathams, I noticed that the American-Hawaiian Steamship Company is given in the list of contributors." A. "That was Mr. Latham's address."

Q. "Howard L. Jackson is down for $10,000. He draws a $25,000 salary from the grain corporation?" A. "I don't know that."

"Frank L. Carey, Minneapolis. He's down for $500 in your list. He has a $25,000 salary from the grain corporation, too," said Senator Reed.

Senator Edges, interrupted, and Senator Reed said he was naming the men and their salaries from an article in the New York American.

J. W. Beller of Washington, appearing for Senator Owen, Democrat, Oklahoma, testified that supporters of the Senator in his home State raised $2,510 for the campaign, and $2,500 was given through the Washington headquarters. Samuel Undermyer of New York, who gave $1,000, he said, was the only large contributor, though Charles Owen of Oklahoma, a cousin of the candidate, gave $500 at the start.

LOWDEN FUND OF $414,984 BIGGEST SO FAR REVEALED; FULL WOOD STORY TO COME

Senatorial Investigators Told That $72,000 Was Spent for Johnson, $85,000 for Poindexter and $22,000 for Cox.

WASHINGTON, May 25. REVELATIONS before the United States Senate investigating Committee made so far show the campaign funds spent by the various candidates for the Presidential nomination to have been as follows:

FRANK O. LOWDEN of Illinois (Republican), $414,984.78, of which $378,159.78 was furnished by the Governor himself.

HIRAN JOHNSON of California (Republican), $72,332, of which about $3,000 is yet to be raised. Less than $1,000 was contributed from $1 to $10 lots. R. B. Strassberg, a wealthy Pennsylvanian, contributed $27,000.

MILES POINDEXTER of Washington (Republican), about $85,000, mainly contributed by shipyard owners and three New York bankers. Of this sum $50,000 was used for publicity.

HOWARD SUTHERLAND of West Virginia (Republican), has spent $473 on "bum-shoe" campaign in his own State.

JAMES M. COX of Ohio (Democrat), $22,000, according to the statement of E. H. Moore, his campaign manager.

LEONARD WOOD (Republican)—Frank H. Hitchcock, one of the General's campaign managers, said he was unable to give details of the Wood finances, but did mention the expenditure of $15,000 in New Jersey and $12,500 in Maryland. Other members of the Wood committee will be called to give full details. E. H. Moore, the Cox manager, said that according to stories told in Ohio the expenditures for Wood and Harding in that State would make Senator Newberry's campaign in Michigan "look like a piker."

ROBERT L. OWEN of Oklahoma (Democrat)—J. W. Beller testified that $11,410 had been contributed, of which Samuel Undermyer of New York put up $1,000.

HERBERT HOOVER (Republican), $66,332, exclusive of the California campaign.

EDWARD I. EDWARDS of New Jersey (Democrat)—Total fund raised given by his manager at $12,900. Liquor interests have not promised to back his campaign.

JOSEPH I. FRANCE of Maryland (Republican)—The Senator testified he had spent no money.

ACCUSES SWANN OF SHARP PRACTICE IN CHILDS CASE

Stanfield Assails Transfer of Fusion Campaign Case to General Sessions.

When John B. Stanfield appeared to-day before Supreme Court Tieney to ask for an inspection of the minutes of the Grand Jury which in May, 1918, indicted William Hamlin Childs for alleged conspiracy and the making of alleged false statements in connection with the Fusion majority campaign, he was met by the objection of Assistant District Attorney Robert L. Johnstone that he had come to the wrong court.

"By an order of Supreme Court Justice Lydon on the 5th of this month," said Mr. Johnstone, "the trial of these indictments was transferred to the Court of General Sessions."

Mr. Stanfield promptly charged the District Attorney's office with "sharp practice." Transfer from the Criminal Term of the Supreme Court to General Sessions without notice to the defendant, he declared, "especially after notice that we would ask for an inspection of these minutes, was nothing else."

"Attorneys connected with our firm and with Mr. Kresel interviewed the Grand Jury which found the indictment," said Mr. Stanfield, "and make affidavit that there was no testimony before them sufficient to find an indictment."

"The District Attorney," Mr. Johnstone replied, "is willing to try these cases in either the Criminal Term of the Supreme Court or in the Court of General Sessions, but he objects to having them made a shuttlecock between the courts."

Justice Tieney said he was in grave doubt of the legality of the court transfer. He declared he would make a careful study of the papers submitted before announcing his decision.

LACK OF BUSINESS CLOSES MANY MILLS

BOSTON, May 25.—Poor transportation facilities, inability to obtain raw materials, and strikes, are forcing the closing of shoe and textile plants throughout New England.

At Woonsocket, R. I., four woolen mills have closed for an indefinite period because of strikes and "poor business."

Three mills of the Jefferson Mill Company at Worcester and Jefferson have closed down for a week. "Inability to obtain raw materials and general business conditions" was the reason given.

The Rice and Hutchins Corporation shoe factory at Marlboro will shut down for a week beginning to-morrow, because of "poor business conditions." It was stated. More than 2,500 employees are affected.

At Haveshill approximately 200 operatives have been laid off because of "lack of business and cancellation of orders."

MORGAN'S LONDON HOUSE OFFERED U. S. FOR ITS EMBASSY

President Wilson Notifies Senate—Offer Was Made Nearly a Year Ago.

WASHINGTON, May 25. J. PIERPONT MORGAN has offered his father's residence in London as a gift to the American people to be used as the official home of the American Ambassador to Great Britain.

The offer was made nearly a year ago but no action was taken. Morgan recently wrote the White House asking for a decision on his offer.

HUSBAND ACCUSED OF FRAMING WIFE IN DIVORCE SUIT

Arthur E. Davenport, Oil Concern's Head, Arrested for Alleged Perjury.

Arthur E. Davenport, manager of the motor transportation department of the Texas Oil Company, No. 47 West Street, and prominent in the oil business, was arrested to-day by Detective Flood of the District Attorney's office, charged with perjury.

He pleaded not guilty, and was released in $2,500 bail pending trial.

Davenport was indicted May 14 on the testimony of M. H. Ketchum, attorney with offices at No. 2 Reector Street, who acted as referee in Davenport's suit for divorce.

The indictment charges Davenport with knowingly and wilfully having found his wife in a compromising position with a man known to him as "Tony the Walter," and this without his knowledge. It is further alleged in the indictment that later developments show that Davenport "did obtain and procure the said 'Tony the Walter' to compromise his wife."

Assistant District Attorney Morton, who presented the case, told Judge Crane in General Sessions that Ketchum had informed the Grand Jury Davenport had confessed to procuring the services of Tony in his divorce action.

LANDLORD WINS RENT SUIT.

Supreme Court Holds Justice Fawcett Power in Dispossessing Tenants.

Justice Fawcett in the Brooklyn Supreme Court to-day held that Municipal Court Justice Strahl exceeded his power when he granted an additional two months stay to three families in the apartment houses at No. 1619 Platte Avenue and No. 459 Hopkinson Avenue.

The cases were before Justice Strahl before the new rent laws went into effect. He gave a judgment for the landlord, but allowed the tenants a two months stay. The landlord did not object to this, but said that the Justice refused to sign final dispossession papers. Justice Fawcett said that the two months was before the new rent law, more time than could be allowed, the limit being twenty days. He granted immediate possession to the landlord.

day was described generally as worse. Deck hands of coal barges refused to handle coal for steamships against which strikes are in progress. This added to the difficulties when the lighter captains quit work.

Reports from the railroads on the freight situation were similar to those of yesterday. Embargoes are still in effect and in some cases they have been extended.

Freight Congestion Relief Taken Up by Committee.

The Interstate Commerce Commission's special terminal committee met to-day to discuss the problem of "car service" and "freight congestion."

The committee will study embargoes, hear complaints about shipping or the lack of it, arrange removal of freight and otherwise endeavor to solve the general freight and traffic situation.

FIGHT TO ENJOIN 80-CENT GAS TAKEN TO FEDERAL COURT

Kings Company Wants Nixon Restrained From Enforcing Higher Rate.

Public Service Commissioner Nixon was to-day served with a summons and complaint and also an order to show cause why the Public Service Commission should not be enjoined from enforcing the eighty-cent gas rate against the Kings County Lighted Company.

The action was started yesterday in the Federal Court where Judge Mayer signed the order.

A similar suit, by the same corporation, started some time ago and decided adversely by Justice Greenbaum in the Supreme Court, is now pending on appeal in the Appellate Division of New York County.

It is alleged in the petition for the restraining order that the gas company cannot exist if gas is to be sold at 80 cents per 1,000 cubic feet, because it now costs $6.01 per 1,000 cubic feet to manufacture and distribute it. The gas company to-day is getting 30 cents per 1,000 cubic feet, but 10 cents of this is impounded pending the result of the suit on appeal.

The company contends that a deficit of 4.6 cents exists on every 1,000 cubic feet of gas sold and distributed last year.

Argument will be heard June 2.

BANDITS HOLD UP JERSEY TROLLEY; ROB PASSENGERS

ed treatie just out of the Jersey City limits. One man with drawn revolver ordered the motorman to stop. The three others walked back through the car to the conductor.

The three men who surrounded the conductor took from him $10 in small change. The bandit who ordered the motorman to stop his car was threatening the car employee as with each few feet the car's speed increased. Suddenly the motorman threw off the "brakes." The bandit was thrown slightly off his balance and the motorman struck him on the head with the handle to his car operating machinery. The bandit fell unconscious.

While their companion lay unconscious the three other highwaymen walked back through the car, robbing the passengers. Despite their threats of shooting, the motorman kept up full speed after the treatie to Jersey City.

Directly in front of Pathe Freres studio, after the car had rolled well into the limits, one of the four robbers pulled the emergency cord and the car came to a sudden stop. The robbers then ran out the back way, their companion having by this time regained consciousness.

The contract called for steel scrap of certain standards and the King claimed these standards were not kept.
